Information

about the centre

Owned and managed by registered manager,
Linda Jones-Lockett.

Approved service providers to Conwy County Borough Council.

Our dedicated team are all CRB and POVA cleared.

The Daffodil Day Centre is open from 9.00 am to 4.30 in the afternoon, Monday to Friday throughout the year.

We are situated behind St. Pauls Church, in the town centre, Colwyn Bay.

There is wheelchair access and the Centre is all
on one level.

The Centre has the benefit of being open planned
but with flexible areas.

Male, female and disabled toilet facilities

We offer morning, afternoon and all-day sessions
to suit individual requirements.

Our kitchen provides a wholesome range of home-made 3-course lunches, mid-morning and afternoon beverages and snacks. Also, certain special dietary needs are catered for.

We also have use of the church gardens when weather permits.

We have been awarded for the second time, a Five Star rating by the Food Standards Agency in recognition of the high standards of the kitchen, for the meals we provide to our clients.

Transport from your home to the centre and return
is provided if required.

Staff are fully trained and accredited in Health & Social Care, Catering & Hospitality to NVQ Level,
also fully trained in Emergency First Aid, Food Hygiene, Health & Safety at Work, Manual Handling and Fire Safety.

A registered nurse (RNLD) completes the team.
